Justin Cheok

Professor Dey

Introduction to Databases

2 December 2023

List of Files and Purpose

1. Main.py – the Flask Python file, hosting all of the use cases and communication with the backend
2. Index.html – the initial page, can choose to view flights here without logging in, or access the login/register pages.
3. Login.html – the page where web visitors can choose to either login as a user or as staff
4. Register.html – the page where web visitors can register as either a user or as staff
5. staffHome.html – where airplane staff are able to access all of their use cases
6. staffLogin.html – where airplane staff can login
7. staffRegister.html – where one can register as an airplane staff
8. userHome.html – where customers are able to access all of their use cases
9. userLogin.html – where customers can login
10. userRegister.html – where one can register as a customer
11. userRatings.html – the page dedicated towards customers inputting their review for a flight.
12. badError.html – a backup page used when users attempt to access pages they do not have access to
13. createTables.sql – File of SQL queries to create all necessary tables for Database
14. insertValues.sql – File of SQL queries to create example values to use
15. sqlQuries.sql – File of SQL queries to ensure database is working